St. Louise Orphanage (Toronto) St. Louise Orphanage is a Roman Catholic orphanage located in the Beaches neighbourhood in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. It is a private non-profit, Catholic, family-based charity registered in Ontario. Founded in 1892, the orphanage is located in a space, that included a playroom, an administrative office, a kitchen, six bedrooms, three bathrooms, and a chapel. It was originally run by the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul but is currently run by a board of directors. History St. Louise Orphanage was established in the Back Creek area of Toronto in 1892. The founder of the orphanage was the mother superior of the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul. Originally the orphanage had an enrollment of 76 children and was a day school. The organization had a year-round program of care, beginning in August to prepare children for their return to their parents. The orphanage moved to a new site in 1911. It remained there until 1964 when the Society of the Daughters of Charity took over and renovated the dormitory of the orphanage and opened the facility as their St. Louise Dormitories. The orphanage moved to its current location in 1969. In 1959 a fire destroyed the original chapel of the orphanage. This resulted in the relocation of the chapel to the Dormitories, and the erection of a new chapel in the main building. In 1969 a neighbouring property was purchased. The building was renovated and a new chapel was built there and dedicated in 1971. The board of directors has worked towards the acquisition of a larger property, in order to expand the orphanage and create additional dormitories. The new property was purchased in 2014 and includes a boarding school and swimming pool. Programs An extensive education program is offered to all children and young adults, both in the Dormitories and at the academic high school, Mary Ward Catholic Secondary School. Children attending the high school are in the arts program called Harker School. Mary Ward Catholic Secondary School is a private, Catholic, family-based academic school. Social and recreational activities are also offered. These include athletic activities, a summer camp, field trips, family oriented activities, art and craft projects.
